Meet your Alaskan Dental Specialists

If you're new to the dental profession or have been practicing for years, you can count on Team Patterson for all of your dental practice needs.

Whether opening a practice and needing initial designs or you're ready to retire and looking to sell, our Patterson team brings over 50 years of experience and is confident with all areas in between.

Reach out to any of the specialists above and you'll be asking yourself why you didn't do it earlier!
Alaska Dental Society Mission Statement:
Committed to enhancing the dental profession and the health of all Alaskans.

The Alaska Dental Society is a non-profit organization open to Alaskan dentists and others in the oral health professions who are committed to the mission of Alaska Dental Society.

The Alaska Dental Society is a constituent of the American Dental Association. It is comprised of seven component societies representing the geographical diversity of the nation’s geographically largest state.

The Alaska Dental Society is governed by an 18-member executive council composed of component society representatives, elected officers and committee chairmen appointed by the president of the society. Executive council meetings are held three times a year with one additional annual session/general membership meeting. This organization recognizes and adheres to the American Dental Association’s Principles of Ethics and Code of Professional Conduct.
